

Bouquet Floral compositions

The art of communicating on emotions.

The flowers we use are collected everyday from growers selected for the quality of their products, their know-how and their ethical and environmental responsibility.

We resort to small, local growers in the Paris area for seasonal flowers and we also allow ourselves to be tempted by further destinations: the Andes, Mauritius, Ecuador, Italy, The « Provence » region in France, for the rare perfumes and beauty for off-seasons.

The flowers chosen are the most magnificent available, they are elegant and harmonious, present are daring contrast of colors and textures. Our flower arrangement express many styles, from academic composition to the expression of « Land Art ».

To accompany the creativity of our workshop, we develop a portfolio, every season, which determines the latest trends in graphic art and interior design.
